

Let's talk about the future of our waters and communities

“Conversation is at the heart of what we know and how we know it. It is central to both constructing the future and learning how to act on it.”

– Andrew Curry, The Futures Company

JOIN OUR DISCUSSION GROUP TO HELP BRING ABOUT A DESIRABLE FUTURE FOR WATER AND PEOPLE IN OUR REGION.

In this two-session discussion group, we will

- Read and discuss fictional-but-plausible stories about the future of water and people to stimulate our imaginations,
- Develop our own vision of a desirable future, and
- Identify steps we can take to work towards that vision.
